— KOUSEI-IN ZEN RESIDENCE —

REFRESH YOURSELF WITHIN THIS UNIQUE HISTORICAL HIDDEN HAVEN

Welcome to Kousei-in, a hidden certified cultural property of downtown Kyoto, featuring 120 years of historical and scenic landscape legacy. Now a temple of the Zen Rinzai school, Kousei-in is remarkable for its beautiful villa from the 19th century, Meiji period, the last one of central Kyoto, along with its exquisite garden featuring tall maples, evergreens, ginkgo and a tranquil pond fed by the Takasegawa River. One step inside the complex and you are immediately transported back to a late Edo, pre-industrial Japan. Here time slows down and one can escape modernity, reflect and return refreshed.

A hidden Kyoto haven that guest can now enjoy by their own while staying at the new ZEN Residence. This brand new rental residence, located along the historical building of Kousei-in, enable guests to enjoy the quiet serenity of this historical domain without sacrificing the comforts of a modern facility.

A truly unique stay experience, limited to one group of 1-5 persons a day. Step into the past, and refresh yourself into the delicate harmony of this hidden gem.
